

TORAH TIME TRAVEL ADVENTURE SERIES
MENU OF OPTIONS

Time Machine Adventure
30 minutes	Introduction and read Max Builds A Time Machine <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Engage children in short Q&A about the story and the Jewish value of welcoming the “new kid on the block.”
15 minutes	Question and Answers <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Explore questions about writing a children’s book and answer any questions about who I am and how I came to write these books.
30-45 minutes	Activity Time, (engage children in one of the following activities) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Build-your-own time machine, using graham cracker cookies, icing and candy (similar to building a gingerbread house). ● Building a time machine from construction paper and other art supplies ● Or painting/drawing a time machine. ● Write and illustrate your own Torah Time Travel adventure. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Which story in the Torah would you visit? ○ What would you do when you got there?

Red Sea Adventure
40 minutes	Introduction and read Max and Emma Cross the Red Sea <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Engage children in short Q&A about the story and the Jewish value of having faith and valuing differences.
15 minutes	Question and Answers <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Explore questions about writing a children’s book and answer any questions about who I am and how I came to write these books.
30-45 minutes	Activity Time, (engage children in one of the following activities) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Build-your-own time machine, using graham cracker cookies, icing and candy (similar to building a gingerbread house). ● Building a time machine from construction paper and other art supplies ● Or painting/drawing a time machine. ● Write and illustrate your own Torah Time Travel adventure. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Which story in the Torah would you visit? ○ What would you do when you got there? ● Crossing the Red Sea (mixed media).

Shabbaton Adventure

This is a two-day event modeled on the launch of my two books in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.
It is customizable to fit your needs and audience.

Shabbat (Saturday)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Jr. Congregation reading of Max Builds a Time Machine.• Or reading of the book at Kiddush lunch following services.• Story of my personal odyssey as a children's author, why I have created this series, and what I am trying to achieve.• Q&A (audience: adults and children)
Sunday morning	Red Sea Adventure (see above).

Notes

*Except on Shabbat

- Selling and signing of the book can occur before or after the formal program.
- Signing of Torah Time Travel illustrated bookmarks for children who don't have their own book. Bookmark will have my webpage address and Apples & Honey webpage address.
- Will need (1) screen to project pages from the book on my laptop computer and (2) tables where children and families can engage in art activities described above.